Note - 1. If more than one beneficiary is nominated, the percentage of the total cash value of the benefit to be paid to each should be indicated. 2. Additional forms may be obtained on request. 3. Alterations or deletions must be signed by the policy holder and the witness.

Receipt of the form will be acknowledged by Corporate Guarantee. If you do not receive our confirmation of receipt with 21 days after posting or delivery, you must please submit a new form to ensure that your nomination is noted.

In view of the experience account value of your policy which becomes payable in the event of your death, it is vital to make suitable provision for the proper disposition of your benefits, in accordance with your wishes.

In terms of the policy terms, Corporate Guarantee has to pay any benefits to the nominee(s) designated by the Policyholder. You may nominate any person, including a Trust, as a beneficiary to whom payment should be made. Such payment falls outside the administration of your Estate and may be made directly to a nominated beneficiary within 30 (thirty) days after Corporate Guarantee has received a certified Death Certificate and other documents, which we may require in our discretion to validate the identity of the beneficiary. If there are no beneficiaries nominated on a nomination form on record with Corporate Guarantee, payment will be made to your Estate.

Please note that the benefit, if paid to your Estate, will be administered and distributed by your Executor in accordance with your Last Will and Testament, or the Rules of Intestate Succession if you do not have a valid Will.

To ensure validity of your nomination form, please ensure that the form is:

1. Dated, 2. Signed, 3. Witnessed, 4. Receipt acknowledged by Corporate Guarantee.
